All of a sudden today it feels like Fall. I got up and ran this morning and it was cool outside. The prevailing wind blowing today is out of the north and it is crisp. We had conversations in our house about the time change that is coming and whether we gain or lose an hour (fall back, we gain an hour). The seasons are definitely changing, and in changing seasons, we expect new realities. In this case, we expect shorter days, longer nights, cooler temperatures and falling leaves.

There are other seasons that are changing as well. This is a new season in the life of the church. We all know that the COVID pandemic has changed us permanently. There are some realities of church that will never go back to the way they were. For one, most pastors that I talk to realize that online church wasn't a temporary stop-gap measure but is here to stay. In preacher's meeting, one of my colleagues said that Thom Rainer is claiming that Sunday Night worship was a casualty of the pandemic. We will have to wait and see about that one.

But in these days of transformation and emerging from the pandemic, I also sense that God is doing new things in ministry. We have finally reached the point that we have prayed for a year and a half, and our evangelism team visited 168 homes on Hampton and Hackworth last Saturday. And I look around the church and see residential neighborhoods on all sides of us. Homes where families and individuals need to be told of the love of Jesus and personally welcomed into community. So, the evangelism team, rather than being done after visiting Hampton and Hackworth, is just getting started.

In light of God doing new things in this new season, the question that each of us should ask is, "what is my place in the work?" As I said a couple weeks ago, we are not called to be garage queens, taken out on Sunday and then returned to sit. We are called to be workers for the Kingdom. God has called each and every one of us. And in this new season, the time is now for each of us to live into our own callings.

On behalf of CEF of Greater Huntington and the CEF volunteers, I want to thank everyone for your generous giving to the fall school bus campaign for the Good News Club. I am thrilled to report that South Ashland donated $1,177.00. Schools are slowly opening back up. Your generosity will go along way in spreading the Gospel to children in the area. I am so thankful for SAUMC and our church family. May God bless each of you richly.

Thanksgiving Baskets

On Sunday, November 21, we will be bringing our Thanksgiving baskets and placing them around the altar for Hillcrest Bruce Mission. The following are some suggestions for a basket for four – a 3lb canned ham, instant mashed potatoes, gravy, instant milk, stove top stuffing, rolls, cans of vegetables, can fruit, Jell-O and prepared dessert. No cream pies, please. If you want to add extra items to the basket, some suggestions are – peanut butter, jelly, saltines, macaroni and cheese, spaghetti and sauce, cans of beef stew, cans of chili, tuna, tuna helper, hamburger helper and applesauce. This time of the year food pantries are sparse, so please give generously.

The Mission also serves the Pollard area.

Do you consider yourself a senior adult? Are you looking for opportunities to get out for a friendly meal and chat with friends? We have the PERFECT opportunity for you! Thurs., Nov 4, senior adults will meet at 5 p.m. at IHOP (331 Diederich Blvd.) for dinner and chatting. Dinner is "Dutch treat" – you pay for what you order.

IHOP is NOT just a pancake place. Their wide menu includes all the wonderful breakfast meals plus burgers, melts, sirloin tips, chicken, fish and turkey dishes. They also have gluten free offerings.

Plan to join senior adults Thurs., Nov 4 at 5 pm, but PLEASE call and make reservations at church (324 6961) by Tues, Nov 2.

We hope you join us!

CARPET CAMPAIGN

We have almost reached our total goal!! To date, we need only $1,100.00 more in order to pay the full amount to have the carpet installed on the upper level of the Education Building. We have already secured a date to have the carpet installed the week of January 17-21, 2022.

After the Education Building carpeting is complete, we will continue this campaign. Our next phase will be to carpet the sanctuary. If you would like to give toward this project, please mark your envelope, "Carpeting". Your gifts are very much appreciated!

NEWS AND EVENTS

Those twelve stones, which they had taken out of the Jordan, Joshua set up in Gilgal, saying to the Israelites,

"When your children ask their parents in time to come, 'What do these stones mean?' then you shall let your children know, 'Israel crossed over the Jordan here on dry ground.' For the Lord your God dried up the waters of the Jordan for you until you crossed over, as the Lord your God did to the Red Sea, which he dried up for us until we crossed over, so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the hand of the Lord is mighty, and so that you may fear the Lord your God forever." –Joshua 4:20-24 NRSV

In response to the above passage, Pastor Rene at Twin Lakes Church in Aptos, California, encouraged our congregation to set up "memorials," or reminders of God's faithfulness. As we approach Thanksgiving and our hearts are urged toward gratefulness, what stones will you set up? What memorials do you have in place so that when your kids and grandkids see them, they might ask, "What's this?" How will you pass down stories of God's faithfulness to the next generation this holiday season?

So many of you are involved with our children's and youth programs, from teaching or helping with weekly programs and special events, to bringing meals on Sunday nights, to driving the van for outings, to sharing input on children's/youth councils, to financially giving to youth programs, to lifting up our young people in prayer again and again. For these things, I am extremely grateful.

◦ In early October, we pulled out lawn chairs and truck beds and hosted a drive-in family movie in the parking lot. The warm weather allowed us to sit outside and laugh with one another about the humorous movie The Lorax, which reminded young and old alike of the importance of stewardship.

- The last weekend of October, we took a family trip to the Ceredo-Kenova Autumn Fest where we enjoyed dinner from some food trucks and walked around the brightly-lit Pumpkin House.
- Throughout the month, the Stewardship & Missions Wednesday evening class packed Halloween treat bags for children in Good News Club, as well as for children who are fed weekly by the Backpack Ministry. Stewardship & Missions made cards for our seniors, and we assembled and sent medical packs to Voice of the Martyrs, an organization who offers support to persecuted Christians around the globe. Our next project—Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes!

◦ To support some of our young people who are in the Ashland Christmas Parade, as well as spend a chilly, festive evening in fellowship along a stretch of downtown Ashland, the youth council would like to invite our church family to come watch the parade together on Tuesday, November 23, at 7:00 pm. More details to come about a meet-up location.

- The week of Thanksgiving, the youth plan to get involved with Hillcrest Bruce's Food Basket building/delivering.

Thank you for your continued support of our children's and youth ministries!

Blessings to My Church Family,

I pray that each and every one of you have a very blessed Thanksgiving. As many of you all know, there were six of us that went to Costa Rica on October 19 to celebrate Mary's retirement. I know we all were blessed to be a part of this, as well as Mary was. She was so thrilled and happy that we were there to celebrate her ministry. It was bittersweet, but we all were so thankful.

We were able to help Mary pack some of the items that she is planning on bringing back to her son's home in Huntsville, Alabama where she will live. The team also traveled to Pital to witness the feeding program on Friday October 22. Natalia and Martin, along with their helpers prepared and served lunch to over 125 children. There were many more children than what they had planned for. They ran out of food, God intervened thru us, so we could go and purchase more food. No child was left hungry that day! Thank God! While we were there, we saw prayer time, a Bible lesson and fun time for the children. They even were each treated to a small bag of candy. It was a truly blessed day.

One thing that touched us, was that Natalia's servers were youth and adults who had been fed in this program as a child. It was awesome seeing a new generation beginning the next chapter of God's plan for this feeding program.

I have included pictures of Mary's celebration and the feeding program. In one of the pictures, you will see Keith praying for the servers prior to feeding the children. You will also see some of us helping to feed. Praying and thinking about all that happened, kept me going to these two Bible verses:

John 21:15-17 When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs." He said to him a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep.

I have always understood the reference of lambs as meaning the children, while sheep are us, the adults.

Matthew 25:23 "His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!'

Thank you for your support for both missions.

In His Love and Service,
Eduardo
